Seminar Report on "Innovation and IPR"

Date: 20.01.2022

Venue: Rajiv Gandhi College of Engineering and Technology (RG CET)

Organized by: Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC)

1. Introduction

The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) of Rajiv Gandhi College of Engineering and Technology (RG CET) organized an enlightening seminar on the topic "Innovation and IPR" for the students of the Information Technology (IT) department. The seminar aimed to foster a deeper understanding of the relationship between innovation and Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), and to provide practical insights into protecting and managing intellectual property in the context of technological innovation.

2. Objectives

The primary objectives of the seminar were:

- ✓ To introduce students to the concepts of innovation and Intellectual Property Rights (IPR).
- ✓ To highlight the significance of IPR in protecting technological innovations.
- ✓ To provide a comprehensive overview of the processes involved in securing intellectual property.
- ✓ To encourage students to consider the strategic implications of IPR in their innovative and entrepreneurial endeavors.

3. Seminar Details

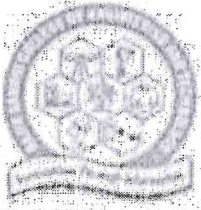

a. Inaugural Session:

The seminar began with an opening address by Dr. E. Vijayakrishna Rapaka, Principal of RG CET. Dr. K. Ayyappan, Vice-Principal emphasized the crucial role of innovation in the IT industry and the importance of protecting innovative ideas through IPR. He encouraged students to actively participate and leverage the knowledge shared in the seminar.

b. Keynote Address:

The keynote address was delivered by Mr. R. Vinoth Kumar, HOD/IT, RG CET a distinguished IPR expert and innovation strategist. Dr. J. Juno Jasmine, Head of the department, MBA a distinguished IPR expert and innovation strategist. She is provided an insightful overview of the interplay between innovation and IPR, sharing examples of how successful technology companies have used IPR to safeguard and commercialize their innovations.
