Seminar Report:

The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) of Rajiv Gandhi College of Engineering and Technology (RG CET) organized an entrepreneur talk on the topic "Sharing my story in my life as crossroads" on 10th March 2021. The event aimed to inspire and educate students and members of the IIC about the important lessons to learn during the path to becoming an entrepreneur.

Objective:

The primary objective of the talk was to introduce IIC students to the pain and gain in the path to becoming an entrepreneur. The students were motivated to become entrepreneurs.

Key Speaker:

The guest lecture was given by Mrs Nancy Mabel Jemima who enlightened the IIC members on the topic "Sharing my story in my life as crossroads".

Conclusion:

The expert talk on Sharing my story in my life as crossroads provided valuable insights and inspiration to the attendees. It reinforced the importance of success to become an entrepreneur. The IIC of RG CET continues to play a pivotal role in nurturing the next generation of innovators and entrepreneurs.
