Kirumampakkam, Puducherry

Chairperson: Dr. E. Vijayakrishna Rapaka

AGENDA

1. Discussion on various preventive measures to eradicate ragging.

RESOLUTIONS

The Chairperson of the Anti-Ragging Committee discussed the following preventive measures to ensure the effective eradication of ragging:

Preventive Measures:

1. It was resolved to widely publicize AICTE/UGC/RGCET regulations on anti-ragging, highlighting the rules and punishments through display boards, pamphlets, and other media.
2. The formation of various committees to monitor students was confirmed, referencing the committees formed in the previous meeting held on 22nd August 2018.
3. First-year teaching staff were instructed to remain in the classroom until the next teacher arrives to ensure supervision.
4. First-year classes are to be conducted in separate blocks closer to the Principal's chamber to facilitate close observation.
5. Faculty members were advised to monitor students during transportation, particularly on college buses.
6. Certain locations, such as bus stands and the canteen, where senior students may interact with juniors, will be closely observed.
7. In the hostels, the ground floor will be reserved for first-year students.
8. A complaint box is to be placed near the first-year classrooms for easy access.
9. Anti-ragging core committee members must remain easily accessible to all students.

10. The movement of senior students outside the campus will be monitored by staff members.
11. Outsiders are prohibited from entering the campus and hostel premises.
12. Any form of interaction or ragging by senior students will not be permitted.
13. Adequate publicity on the negative aspects of ragging will be promoted through print and electronic media.
14. Security personnel are instructed to closely monitor senior students and outsiders at the main entrance.
15. Hostel wardens must maintain comprehensive contact details of all students.
16. Regular inspections by various anti-ragging committee members should be conducted.
17. Anti-ragging committee members are advised to make surprise visits to hostels, the canteen, and other areas.
18. All senior students are required to wear their identity cards while on college premises.
19. It was suggested that regular interactions or review meetings between juniors and seniors should be organized by committee members to foster a positive environment.
20. All committee members are requested to closely monitor student activities during intervals and lunch breaks. Preventive measures were discussed in the presence of the following core committee members of the Anti-Ragging Committee.
