CIRCULAR

Sub: Separate Seating Arrangements and Conduct Guidelines– Reg.

This is to inform all staff and students that separate seating arrangements have been made for male students, female students, and all staff members in the College canteen. All students are advised to follow this new code of conduct without fail.

Furthermore, all staff members are requested to have their morning tea during the break hours only and to oversee the discipline of the students during break hours and lunch hours.

Additionally, all staff members, except Bus Coordinators, should leave the college after 4:15 p.m. or when all the College buses leave the College during the evening session, whichever is later.
